- D. Discovery (in addition to the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)):

1. Documents. First request for production of documents, if any, must be served by ~~July 26, 2007~~ 7/9/07 Further document requests may be served as required, but no document request may be served later than 30 days prior to the date of the close of discovery as set forth in item 6 below.

2. Interrogatories. Interrogatories pursuant to Rule 33.3(a) of the Local Civil Rules of the Southern District of New York must be served by ~~August 2, 2007~~ 7/9/07 No other interrogatories are permitted except upon prior express permission of Judge Rakoff. No Rule 33.3(a) interrogatories need be served with respect to disclosures automatically required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a).

3. Experts. Every party-proponent of a claim (including any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim) that intends to offer expert testimony in respect of such claim must make the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) by October 8, 2007. Every party-opponent of such claim that intends to offer expert testimony in opposition to such claim must make the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2) by October 22, 2007. No expert testimony (whether designated as "rebuttal" or otherwise) will be permitted by other experts or beyond the scope of the opinions covered by the aforesaid disclosures except upon prior express permission of the Court, application for which must be made no later than 10 days after the date specified in the immediately preceding sentence. All experts may be deposed, but such depositions must occur within the time limit for all depositions set forth below.

Insert 3A

INSERT 3A

Motion for Class Certification. Any motion for class certification and supporting memorandum shall be filed by ~~August 31, 2007~~ ^{7/16/07}. Defendants will file any response thereto by ~~October 8, 2007~~ ^{8/6/07}, and plaintiffs will file their reply memorandum by ~~October 29, 2007~~ ^{8/29/07 at 4 p.m.}. A hearing on plaintiffs' class certification motion shall be held on ~~8/20/07~~ ^{8/20/07}, 2007.

4. Depositions. All depositions (including any expert depositions, see item 3 above) must be completed by November 2, 2007. Unless counsel agree otherwise or the Court so orders, depositions shall not commence until all parties have completed the initial disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) or until four weeks from the date of this Order, whichever is earlier. Depositions shall proceed concurrently, with no party having priority, and no deposition shall extend beyond one business day without prior leave of the Court.

5. Requests to Admit. Requests to Admit, if any, must be served by October 3, 2007 [insert date that is no later than 30 days prior to date of close of discovery as set forth in item 6 below].

6. All discovery is to be completed by November 2, 2007. Interim deadlines for items 1-5 above may be extended by the parties on consent without application to the Court, provided the parties are certain they can still meet the discovery completion date set forth in this paragraph, which shall not be adjourned except upon a showing to the Court of extraordinary circumstances.

E. Post-discovery summary judgment motions in the form prescribed by the Court's Individual Rules of Practice may be brought on without further consultation with the Court provided that a Notice of any such motion, in the form specified in the Court's Individual Rules of Practice, is filed no later than one week following the close-of-discovery date (item D-6 above) and provided that the moving papers are served by November 9, 2007, answering papers by November 16, 2007, and reply papers by November 20, 2007 [the last of these days being no later than six weeks following the close of discovery]. Each party must file its respective papers with the Clerk of the Court on the same date that such papers are served. Additionally, on the same date that reply papers are served and filed, counsel for the parties must arrange to deliver a courtesy non-electronic hard copy of the complete set of papers to the Courthouse for delivery to Chambers.

F. A final pre-trial conference, as well as oral argument on any post-discovery summary judgment motions, shall be held on 11/28 at 4 pm [date to be inserted by the Court], at which time the Court shall set a firm trial date. The timing and other requirements for the Joint Pretrial Order and/or other pre-trial submissions shall be governed by the Court's Individual Rules of Practice.

G. All motions and applications shall be governed by Judge Rakoff's Individual Rules of Practice. Counsel shall promptly familiarize themselves with all of the Court's Individual Rules, as well as with the Local Rules for the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

SO ORDERED.
